Owen R. Moxley of Chief Wagner's clerical force, who is so familiarly known to his associates as "Henry," fully appreciates a practical joke, and unlike many others, when the joke i turned his way he laughs all the louder. A parcel post of two pounds of butter ed him at the office one day the past week and he was careful to put it in a place where it would not melt, an on his way home with what he supposed was the package of butter he as careful not to soil his clothes.

When I opened the package," said Moxley to a friend the next morning, "I found it contained some worthless fuses. The butter wasn't strong enough to run and the fuses wouldn't go off."

As a result of the joke, however, Moxley was hustled out of bed early the next morning and sent to a neighboring store for butter. When I opened the package," said

It is probable that the committee appointed by Commissioner Siddons to inspect the quarters of the several companies and determine the winners of the trophy flags will soon begin making inspections. The committee is composed of Corcoran Thom, Thomas Grant and C. J. Gockeler.

Henry B. F. Macfarland presented the trophy for the engine company making the best showing, while Gen. John A. Johnston provided a similar trophy for the truck company making the best appearance at inspection.

Each trophy was presented when the donor was serving as District Commissioner and having immediate supervision of the fire department. No. 1 engine and No. 4 truck company were last year's winners. It is probable that the committee ap

ENTIRE FAMILY IS ASSISTED.

Mrs. Hesse Tells of Work of Sunshine and Community Society.

How an entire family, consisting o mother and five children, deserted by the husband and father, has been provided for by the hospital and welfare branch of the Sunshine and Community Society was told at the meeting of that organization Friday in the home of Mrs. Hesse.

The youngest child had been nurse through pneumonia, employment found for the mother, so that she can provide for her little ones, and the family housed in a clean and comfortable home. This was the principal bene-faction of this branch during the last month and assistance will be continued month and assistance will be continued as long as the family needs it.

Other encouraging reports were received and the hospital and welfare branch decided to hold several entertainments soon to provide funds for their charity work. A number of the members have been taking active part in the "District donation week" campaign for the benefit of Washington charities.

CHILDREN TO GIVE CONCERT.

Entertainment Planned to Benefit Athletics of Colored Schools.

Plans for a concert by children of the colored public schools, for the bene-fit of the Public School Athletic League, are being made. The music department has been granted permission to hold the concert in Conven-tion Hall the latter part of April, and it is planned to have the largest chorus of school children ever assembled in Washington.

Preliminary plans for the musical were discussed recently at a meeting of the executive committee, and chairmen of other committees of the league. Prof. John T. Layton, assistant director of music in the schools, reported that plans are under way for having each grade of the elementary schools, as well as the normal and high schools, represented in songs and choruses.

A ways and means committee, consisting of Eugene A. Clark, Edwin B. Henderson and John C. Bruce, president, secretary and treasurer, respectively, of the league, was named. Other appointments made were those of E. H. Lawson, chairman of the finance committee, and J. Moria Saunders, chairman of the committee on publicity and printing.
